PROFILE SUMMARY

The main focus of my research is the "fusion" of quantitative data analysis with various qualitative theoretical linguistics. In particular, I have been working on several issues on addressee honorifics as well as content honorifics, applicatives, complement clauses, embedded moods, and speech acts from both digital humanities perspective and theoretical linguistic standpoints.

LANGUAGES

- ✓ Japanese: Native
- ✓ English: Fluent

INTERESTS

- ✓ Digital Humanities
- ✓ Theoretical Linguistics
- ✓ Bayesian statistics
- ✓ Diachronic/synchronic variations in languages

WORK EXPERIENCE

OSAKA UNIVERSITY | Associate Professor

Oct. 2020 - Present

Osaka, Japan

- Supervise master's and doctoral students majoring in language and culture studies (students in Digital Humanities, Linguistics, and Theoretical Linguistics, among others).
- Offer English classes for undergraduates.
  - Integrated English (Academic Skills)
- Offer a mandatory course for first-year undergraduate students which is designed to help students develop their fundamental research and academic skills.
  - A Door To Academia
- Teach a course in linguistic statistics for undergraduate and graduate students.
  - Linguistic Statistics A/B
- Handle various academic affairs of the university.
- Also an adjunct faculty member at Center for Mathematical Modeling and Data Science (MMDS).
- Develop and coordinate a program of graduate-level Digital Humanity courses.

SURUGADAI UNIVERSITY | Adjunct Professor

Apr. 2022 - Present

Saitama, Japan

- Taught Linguistic Communication, English Studies I & II, Cross-Cultural Communication, and Cognitive Linguistics to undergraduate students

AWARDS

- 2023 Best Presentation Award (International Spring Forum of the English Linguistic Society of Japan).
- 2023 The Osaka University prize
- 2019 Best Presentation Award (International Spring Forum of the English Linguistic Society of Japan)
- 2018 Best Presentation Award (The 156th meeting of Linguistics Society of Japan)
- 2015 JASSO Scholarship
- 2014 Fulbright Scholarship
- 2012 Summer award of Friends of Today

EDUCATION

Ph. D. (Linguistics)
Georgetown University
Aug. 2014 – Dec. 2019

M.A. (Master of Arts)
The University of Tokyo
Apr. 2012 – Mar. 2014

Thesis

1. Yamada, Akitaka (2019) The syntax, semantics and pragmatics of Japanese addressee-honorific markers. Doctoral Thesis. Georgetown University.
2. Yamada, Akitaka (2013) Subjective Expressions in Discourse. Master's Thesis. The University of Tokyo.
